Oh I feel like dancing, I can't keep it in
Oh I feel singing and clapping, with all of my friends

E

Oh I feel like crying, let it all come out
Oh I feel like laughing and smiling, I can't seem to stop

F#M D A

Cause I know that his word never fails

F#M D A

It fills my heart with joy when I begin to listen... it sets me free, oh I believe

Oh I feel like morning, cant quite figure out
Oh I feel like sighing and dieing... to myself

Cause I know that his word never fails
It fills my heart with joy when I begin to listen... it sets me free, oh I believe

Oh I feel like praying, and soak it all in
Oh I feel like repenting and weeping, for all of my sins

Cause I know that his word never fails
It fills my heart with joy when I begin to listen... it sets me free, oh I believe

Oh I feel like shouting, I can't hold it in
Oh I feel like skipping and twirling... until the end

Cause I know that his word never fails
It fills my heart with joy when I begin to listen... it sets me free, oh I believe
