Open up...
Let me in...
I'm not your foe...
But I'm your friend...

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
We all need lovin, you know it's a must
Brother, brother help me, come and stand by my side
People get ready for a roller coaster ride... into heaven

It's free, a gift from above
Spirits movin higher on wings of a dove
It's love, a gift from above

Angels and demons, it's a battle in a mind
My heart keeps on singing, "it's only in due time"
Although I am running, trying to finish this race
His blood, keeps on flowing all over this place... Thank you Lord

Oh I'll say it again, "Thank you Lord"
For he who knew no sin, "Thank you Lord"
For letting me on in, "Thank you, thank you, thank you!"

You might think I'm crazy, you can call me a fool
I'm just a vessel, I'm only God's tool
You're forgiven, the debts already paid
Let it out, go on and bring Glory to his name... Thank you Lord

Oh I'll say it again, "Thank you Lord"
For he who knew no sin, "Thank you Lord"
For letting me on in, "Thank you, thank you, thank you!"

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
We all need love, you know it's a must
Father, Father help me, give us wisdom from above
Send our Holy Spirit, let it descend like a dove... from heaven
