Where we go, no one knows but the Lord, so we're told and so we'll walk right, side by side

Let's go for a ride, me and you, got a one way ticket to the gates of paradise
Where we go, no one knows but the Lord, so we're told and so we'll walk right, side by side

Wake up now... get up now... rise up now... oh, stand up on your feet... and fight the good fight

Suit up in the armor of Love... and fight the good fight
Suit up in the armor of Love... and fight the good fight

Some how and some way, some time and some day
We'll be drinking wine, from the new vine in paradise
So keep the faith and the Love and the fire from above... and fight the good fight

Suit up in the armor of Love... and fight the good fight
Suit up in the armor of Love... and fight the good fight

Let's go for a ride, me and you, got a one way ticket to the gates of paradise
Where we go, no one knows but the Lord, so we're told and so we'll walk right, side by side

Fight the good fight... fight the good fight... fight the good fight...
