

THE "THAILAND" SONG

© 2009 Alex Balingit

A C D A C D
This is the day that the Lord has made... Rejoice and be glad in it

A C D A C D
This is the day that the Lord has made, Sing Praise

And I will sing... And I will shout... And I will sing, praise the Lord

Swing low sweet chariot, take me home
Swing low sweet chariot, take me home

Mercy is falling like a sweet, sweet rain... Falls down all over me and you Mercy is falling like a sweet, sweet rain, sing praise

And I will sing... And I will shout... And I will sing, praise the Lord

Swing low sweet chariot, take me home
Swing low sweet chariot, take me home

Who put the faith in the faith, faith, faith? Who put the grace in the grace, grace, grace? Who put the hope in the hope, hope, hope? Who put the love in the love, love, love? I want to know him more, because he gave his life... (Jesus) I want to know him more, because he died for you and me... whoa, whoa... When the gates open wide, you know I'm going to sit right down by Jesus side, ah yea... When the gates open wide, you know I'm going to sit right down by Jesus side, sing praise

And I will sing... And I will shout... And I will sing, praise the Lord

Swing low sweet chariot, take me home
Swing low sweet chariot, take me home

That's why I sing, "Na, na, na... fly like a butterfly."
Na, na, na... fly like a butterfly
Fly like a butterfly, yea...
