INTRO

E E C#m E E C#m A

V:

Give me one reason, why we should drop this thing we have
Give me the season, to show you that I care
That it's more than simple pleasantries, the conversations that we share
Listen to the words, I have chosen from the many
A sip from the pool, which persists in my mind
To define the moment when you smiled, when I saw what I fought to find

C:

Are you feeling alive today? Would you believe me if I told you
That everything will be alright one day
Are you feeling alive today? Does your heartbeat know the song it sings?
Does it leave for joy... inside you?

GOING INTO THE BRIDGE [E A C#m B A] LET IT RING

B:

Everything in me breaks, when you shut the door on me
All I had to offer, was all that made me free
With the choice you have, before you, I wish I could make you see
